However, if you choose not to do so, we are required to deduct withholding tax from interest earned unless you are in an exempt category. If you are in an exempt category, you should notify us and provide your exemption certificate number.
- 6.2. Withholding tax is calculated at the highest marginal tax rate plus Medicare Levy.

7. JOINT HOLDERS

- 7.1. Where your Deposit Product is held jointly with one or more persons, the following shall apply:

 - (b) to advise ANZ of the resignation or appointment of any trustees or of any director of a company that is a trustee; and
 - (c) to ensure that all new trustees accept your liability to ANZ under these Terms and Conditions and ANZ may treat all new trustees as authorised to act on behalf of the trust in respect of these Terms and Conditions and any Deposit Product.

- 10.2. You must maintain at least the Minimum Deposit Amount during the term of your 11am Deposit, unless otherwise agreed by ANZ.

- 12.1. The initial interest rate that will apply to your 11am Deposit will be the rate that ANZ quotes to you and will be set out in the relevant confirmation. The interest rate is set by ANZ on a daily basis and may change at our discretion.
- 12.2. Interest is calculated daily on your closing balance. The applicable daily interest rate is the annual percentage rate divided by 365 days.
- 12.3. Interest is paid monthly in arrears on the first Business Day of each calendar month. If an 11am Deposit is closed during the month, interest is calculated daily for the period that funds were deposited and is paid on the first Business Day of the following calendar month.
- 12.4. At the time you make your 11am Deposit, you can arrange for your interest to be:
 - (a) credited to your Nominated Account; or

- 13.3. ANZ may from time to time set a minimum transaction size for withdrawals.

PART D: DEPOSIT PRODUCT PARTICULARS – FIXED TERM DEPOSIT

14. MINIMUM DEPOSIT AMOUNT

- 14.1. To open a Fixed Term Deposit, you must deposit with ANZ a Minimum Deposit Amount of:
- (a) for an AUD Term Deposit, AUD250,000; and
 - (b) for a Foreign Currency Term Deposit, the Approved Foreign Currency equivalent of AUD500,000,
- or such other amount agreed by ANZ in cleared funds.
- 14.2. You must maintain at least the Minimum Deposit Amount during the term of your Fixed Term Deposit, unless otherwise agreed by ANZ.
- 14.3. Additional funds cannot be added to an existing Fixed Term Deposit before maturity. Additional deposits equal to or greater than the Minimum Deposit Amount will be accepted and be treated as a separate Fixed Term Deposit. The interest rate for that deposit may differ to existing deposits you may already have.

15. TERM

- 15.1. The terms available for a Fixed Term Deposit range between:
- (a) for an AUD Term Deposit, a minimum of 7 days and a maximum of 5 years; and
 - (b) for a Foreign Currency Term Deposit, a minimum of 1 month and a maximum of 2 years.
- 15.2. Other terms may be available from time to time. The term of your Fixed Term Deposit will be agreed at the time of your deposit and will be stated in the relevant confirmation.

16. INTEREST

- 16.1. The interest rate that will apply to your Fixed Term Deposit will be the rate that ANZ quotes to you and will be set out in the relevant confirmation. The interest rate will remain fixed for the term of the Fixed Term Deposit.
- 16.2. Interest is calculated daily on your closing balance. The applicable daily interest rate is the annual percentage rate:
- (a) divided by 365 days for Fixed Term Deposits denominated in the currency of any Commonwealth country (with the exception of Canada); or
 - (b) divided by 360 days for Fixed Term Deposits denominated in a currency of all other countries (including Canada).
- 16.3. Interest is paid in arrears on maturity unless otherwise agreed between you and us.

- 16.4. At the time you make your Fixed Term Deposit, you can arrange for your interest to be:
- (a) credited to your Nominated Account; or
 - (b) (if payable at maturity) reinvested with your principal as a new Fixed Term Deposit.

17. WITHDRAWAL AND MATURITY

- 17.1. It is your responsibility to advise ANZ of your requirements for your Fixed Term Deposit when it matures.
- 17.2. You may instruct us at maturity to:
- (a) withdraw some or all of the funds from your maturing Fixed Term Deposit and pay those funds to your Nominated Account; or
 - (b) reinvest some or all of the funds from your maturing Fixed Term Deposit (including interest and any additional funds, as applicable) in a new Fixed Term Deposit (subject to the Minimum Deposit Amount requirements); or
 - (c) reinvest in another Deposit Product.
- 17.3. You may only withdraw amounts from your Fixed Term Deposit on the maturity date (subject to early withdrawal provisions under clause 18).
- 17.4. ANZ may from time to time set a minimum transaction size for any withdrawal from an existing Fixed Term Deposit or deposit of additional funds into a new Fixed Term Deposit.
- 17.5. Where we have not received any instructions under clause 17.2 on or before the maturity date, we will automatically roll your Fixed Term Deposit on maturity into a new Fixed Term Deposit for the same term (where available) and at the interest rate applicable at the time of reinvestment (which may be significantly different, higher or lower, to the interest rate applied in the previous term as a consequence of market rate movements).
- 17.6. For Fixed Term Deposits of less than AUD500,000 or equivalent that are automatically rolled by ANZ on maturity, you can contact ANZ up to 7 Business Days after the maturity date to change either the term of the new Fixed Term Deposit, or the amount you wish to reinvest (provided that you comply with the Minimum Initial Deposit Amount requirements).

18. EARLY WITHDRAWAL

- 18.1. Fixed Term Deposits are designed to be held until maturity.
- 18.2. If you wish to terminate all or part of your Fixed Term Deposit before its maturity date, you must make a written request to ANZ.

18.3. For a Fixed Term Deposit of less than AUD500,000 or equivalent, you may terminate part or all of your Fixed Term Deposit prior to maturity subject to payment by you of any applicable early termination cost (as determined in accordance with clause 18.5 below).

18.4. For a Fixed Term Deposit of AUD500,000 or equivalent or greater, you may only terminate all or part of your Fixed Term Deposit prior to maturity, where ANZ has agreed in writing to your written request to terminate early on the basis of hardship, as determined by ANZ acting reasonably. In all other cases, termination before maturity is at the absolute discretion of ANZ and ANZ may refuse a termination request at any time without giving reasons. If early termination is permitted by ANZ, you will be required to pay any applicable early termination cost (as determined in accordance with clause 18.5 below).

18.5. The amount of the early termination cost is calculated by ANZ (acting reasonably) by working out the loss to ANZ, if any, arising because of the early termination. ANZ will notify you of the result of those calculations as soon as practicable after making those calculations. In determining the early termination cost, ANZ takes into account the amount withdrawn, the time until maturity and movements in the money market rate (being the interest rate that ANZ is charged when borrowing funds from the wholesale money markets) since the Fixed Term Deposit was entered into. The money market rate can incorporate break and administrative costs and varies from day to day depending on a number of factors including:

- (a) current market conditions; and
- (b) current cash rate expectations; and
- (c) the current liquidity in financial markets; and
- (d) the amount and term of the investment; and
- (e) market pricing of a financial institution's credit risk.

Given these variables, it is not possible to estimate the early withdrawal charge prior to the time an early termination request is actually made.

18.6. For a Fixed Term Deposit of less than AUD500,000 or equivalent, the early termination cost calculated by ANZ in accordance with above may result in a reduction in the accrued interest payable to you (potentially to zero). The early termination cost will, however, never exceed the accrued interest payable to you.

18.7. For a Fixed Term Deposit of AUD500,000 or equivalent or greater, the early termination cost calculated by ANZ in accordance with above may result in a reduction in the accrued interest payable to you (potentially to zero). It may also result in a reduction of principal payable to you. This means that you may receive a net amount that is less than the amount of your principal.

PART E: DEPOSIT PRODUCT PARTICULARS – FLOATING RATE DEPOSIT

19. MINIMUM DEPOSIT AMOUNT

- 19.1. To open a Floating Rate Deposit, you must deposit with ANZ a Minimum Initial Deposit Amount of:
- (a) for an AUD Floating Rate Deposit, AUD500,000; and
 - (b) for a Foreign Currency Floating Rate Deposit, the Approved Foreign Currency, equivalent of AUD500,000; or
 - (c) such other amount agreed by ANZ, in cleared funds.
- 19.2. You must maintain at least the Minimum Deposit Amount during the term of your Floating Rate Deposit, unless otherwise agreed by ANZ.
- 19.3. Additional funds cannot be added to an existing Floating Rate Deposit before maturity. Additional deposits equal to or greater than the Minimum Deposit Amount will be accepted and be treated as a separate Floating Rate Deposit. The interest rate for that deposit may differ to existing deposits you may already have.

20. TERM

- 20.1. The terms available for a Floating Rate Deposit range between a minimum of 12 months and a maximum of 5 years.
- 20.2. Other terms may be available from time to time. The term of your Floating Rate Deposit will be agreed at the time of your deposit and will be stated in the relevant confirmation.

21. INTEREST

- 21.1. The initial interest rate that will apply to your Floating Rate Deposit will be the nominated benchmark rate agreed between the parties plus a margin ("Floating Rate"), where the margin is agreed when you make the deposit. The benchmark rate is determined by ANZ at the start of each Floating Rate Interest Period and is fixed for such period.
- 21.2. Interest is calculated daily on your closing balance. The applicable daily interest rate is determined by dividing the annual Floating Rate by:
- (a) 365 days for Floating Rate Deposits denominated in the currency of any Commonwealth country (with the exception of Canada); or
 - (b) divided by 360 days for Floating Rate Deposits denominated in a currency of all other countries (including Canada).
- 21.3. Interest is paid either monthly, quarterly or as otherwise agreed between you and us in arrears, (each a "Floating Rate Interest Period").
- 21.4. Your interest will be credited to your Nominated Account.

22. WITHDRAWAL AND MATURITY

- 22.1. It is your responsibility to advise ANZ of your requirements for your Floating Rate Deposit when it matures.

- 22.2. You may instruct us at maturity to:

- (a) withdraw some or all of the funds from your maturing Floating Rate Deposit and pay those funds to your Nominated Account; or
- (b) reinvest some or all of the funds from your maturing Floating Rate Deposit (including any additional funds, as applicable) in a new Floating Rate Deposit for an agreed margin and term (subject to the Minimum Deposit Amount requirements); or
- (c) reinvest in another Deposit Product.

- 22.3. You may only withdraw amounts from your Floating Rate Deposit on the maturity date (subject to early withdrawal provisions under clause 23).

- 22.4. Where we have not received any instructions under clause 22.2 on or before the maturity date, we will credit your funds to your Nominated Account on maturity.

23. EARLY WITHDRAWAL

- 23.1. Floating Rate Deposits are designed to be held until maturity.
- 23.2. You may only terminate all or part of your Floating Rate Deposit before its maturity date, where ANZ has agreed in writing to your written request to terminate on the basis of hardship, as determined by ANZ (acting reasonably). In all other cases termination before maturity is at the absolute discretion of ANZ and ANZ may refuse a termination request at any time without giving reasons. If early termination is permitted by ANZ, you will be required to pay any applicable early termination cost (as determined in accordance with clause 23.3 below).
- 23.3. The amount of the early termination cost is calculated by ANZ (acting reasonably) by working out the loss to ANZ, if any, arising because of the early termination. ANZ will notify you of the result of those calculations as soon as practicable after making those calculations. In determining the early termination cost, ANZ takes into account the amount withdrawn, the time until maturity and movements in the money market rate (being the interest rate that ANZ is charged when borrowing funds from the wholesale money markets) since the Floating Rate Deposit was entered into. The money market rate can incorporate break and administrative costs and varies from day to day depending on a number of factors including (a) current market conditions (b) current cash rate expectations (c) the current liquidity in financial markets (d) the amount and term of the investment and (e) market pricing of a financial institution's credit risk. Given these variables, it is not possible to estimate the early withdrawal charge prior to the time an early termination request is actually made.
- 23.4. The early termination cost calculated by ANZ in accordance with above may result in a reduction in the accrued interest payable to you (potentially to zero). It may also result in a reduction of principal payable to you. This means that you may receive a net amount that is less than the amount of your principal.

PART F: GENERAL

24. FEES AND CHARGES

- 24.1. There are currently no fees and charges payable in relation to your Deposit Product.
- 24.2. ANZ reserves the right to charge fees and charges in the future in relation to a Deposit Product and will notify you of such fees and charges from time to time in accordance with clause 43. Any such fees and charges will apply:
- (a) in the case of 11am Deposits, 30 days after the date of the notice; and
 - (b) in all other cases, only to investments made after the date of the notice.

25. TAXES

- 25.1. You will pay all Taxes applicable to you and payable in connection with any Deposit Product.
- 25.2 Without limiting clause 25.1, you authorise ANZ to debit government charges or duties, which are levied from time to time, from your Deposit Product. These charges will be included in your statement and may vary according to State or Territory.

26. CONFIRMATIONS AND STATEMENTS

- 26.1. We will issue a confirmation for your Deposit Product at investment, maturity, early withdrawal and reinvestment as relevant.
- 26.2. We will also issue to you an annual interest statement and, in the case of 11am Deposits only, a monthly interest statement.
- 26.3. You must carefully review any documents issued by us so you are aware of the status of your Deposit Product. If you believe there are errors or unauthorised transactions shown on the documents, you must contact us as soon as possible.
- 26.4. Unless you notify us within 5 Business Days of receipt, ANZ records of a direction, certificate, report, confirmation, statement, notice or other Communication are deemed to be conclusive evidence of their content, except in the case of manifest error or ANZ's wilful default or gross negligence. If you notify ANZ under this clause that you believe that the details of a transaction are not correctly set out in the confirmation, each party agrees to discuss in good faith to try to reach agreement on the details of the transaction.
- 26.5. A confirmation or statement will be sent to you in accordance with clause 36 including via Electronic Communications.

27. DEDUCTIONS AND WITHHOLDINGS

ANZ may debit your Deposit Product, reverse any deposit into your Deposit Product or make a deduction from any credit interest accrued on your Deposit Product:

- (a) to correct an error; or
 - (b) where ANZ is required to make a withholding or deduction for any applicable Taxes, fees or charges; or
 - (c) where ANZ is required by any law, sanction or requirement of any competent Authority,
- and will notify you in writing after making any such debit, reversal or deduction.

28. FOREIGN CURRENCY RISK

- 28.1. Foreign exchange markets are inherently risky and can be volatile.
- 28.2. For Foreign Currency Term Deposits and Foreign Currency Floating Rate Deposits, there is a risk that movements in exchange rates may adversely impact a Deposit Product holder by reducing the AUD equivalent of your deposit and interest accrued on that deposit. For example, if you have a USD5,000,000 Foreign Currency Term Deposit or a Foreign Currency Floating Rate Deposit, an upward movement in AUD (relative to USD) during the term of the deposit, means in AUD terms, the USD in your deposit are worth less than they previously were in AUD.

29. RMB FOREIGN CURRENCY TERM DEPOSITS

- 29.1. This clause 29 applies if your Foreign Currency Term Deposit is denominated in Renminbi ("RMB").
- 29.2. You acknowledge:
- (a) that RMB is subject to exchange rate risk, there are differing exchange rates between the offshore and onshore RMB markets and RMB is currently not freely convertible between the onshore and offshore markets; and
 - (b) that RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposits are subject to:
 - (i) the applicable law, relevant exchange rate control and any relevant regulatory and policy requirements and restrictions of any Authority, custodian, professional body governing RMB related activities and services or relevant clearing and settlement bank ("RMB Requirements") and that you will comply with all RMB Requirements applicable to you; and
 - (ii) the relevant internal policies of ANZ relating to RMB; and
 - (iii) the availability of RMB in any market and ANZ's ability to deal in RMB; and
 - (c) that any instructions in respect of your RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposit will be issued in compliance with the RMB Requirements; and

PART F: GENERAL

- (d) that you will provide ANZ or any relevant Authority, custodian, professional body governing RMB related activities and services or clearing or settlement bank with all documents and information in respect of any instruction or transaction as ANZ may require from time to time; and
- (e) that ANZ is entitled to report and disclose all and any transactions and information relating to you and any of your RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposits to any relevant Authority, professional body or clearing or settlement bank (whether in Australia, China, Hong Kong, Singapore or otherwise) as may be required by the RMB Requirements without your prior notice or consent; and
- (f) that you will maintain records for all transactions relating to any RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposit (including evidence of any underlying transactions or purpose of the transaction) for a period of seven years from the date of the relevant transaction and, where requested by ANZ, provide such information to ANZ.

29.3. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Terms and Conditions, ANZ may from time to time:

- (a) reject your instruction(s) in relation to any RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposit if, in ANZ's opinion, such request is in violation of the RMB Requirements or ANZ's internal policies, or due to the unavailability of RMB or inability of ANZ to deal in RMB; and
- (b) set restrictions in relation to RMB Foreign Currency Term Deposits including any maximum amount for that deposit or any transaction in relation to that deposit.
