

Underlying fund changes - Goldman Sachs Income Plus Fund

PRODUCT UPDATE: APRIL 2017

Following an announcement in September 2016 of the management buyout of Goldman Sachs Asset Management's (GSAM's) Australian funds management platform and investment capabilities, there has been a rebranding of the manager to Yarra Capital Management.

OneAnswer offers an investment fund called the Goldman Sachs Income Plus Fund (the Fund). The Fund invests in an underlying fund which has recently undergone the following changes:

- the name of the underlying fund has changed from Goldman Sachs Income Plus Fund to Yarra Income Plus Fund; and
- the name of the responsibility entity has changed from Goldman Sachs Australia Managed Funds Limited to Yarra Funds Management Limited.

Do these changes impact existing investors?

There is no impact to existing investors as a result of the changes to the underlying fund.

The same investment team will continue to actively manage the underlying fund and there will be no changes to the investment objectives, strategy, asset allocation or fees.

You should also note that the name of the Goldman Sachs Income Plus Fund will also be changed later in 2017. This change will be reflected in the next update to the OneAnswer Product Disclosure Statements (PDSs) for the OneAnswer suite of products which are scheduled to be reissued in September 2017.

Which products will be affected by these changes?

The Fund is available through the investment menu of the following OneAnswer products:

- ANZ OneAnswer Investment Portfolio (including //Select)
- ANZ OneAnswer Personal Super and Pension (including //Select)
- ANZ OneAnswer Term Allocated Pension (including //Select).
