ABOUT THIS GUIDE

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to provide key information you need to make an informed decision about whether the services offered by ANZ Private Banking & Advice are right for you.

This Financial Services Guide is designed to give you an understanding of how Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited (ANZ) works, and help you to decide whether to use the services offered by ANZ Private Banking & Advice.

This guide includes the financial services we are authorised to offer, the remuneration we (and other relevant persons) may receive, our collection, use and disclosure of your personal information, and how you can make a complaint.

You may also receive other important documentation from us to assist you further. If we provide you with personal advice, we will usually provide you with a 'Statement of Advice' which details our advice. If this advice recommends a financial product, we will provide you with a 'Product Disclosure Statement' which details the features of the product. Both of these documents are explored in more detail on page 5.

Please take your time to read this document carefully. If you have any questions, instructions or need further clarification, feel free to call ANZ Private Banking & Advice on 1800 626 855 or talk to your ANZ Financial Adviser.

HOW WE CAN HELP YOU

We know your circumstances and priorities will continue to evolve so we provide advice that's adaptable to life's inevitable ups and downs. Your ANZ Financial Adviser can help you:

IDENTIFY YOUR SHORT AND LONG TERM GOALS

Maybe you want to spend a year travelling or buy a plot of land. Maybe you want to ensure your kids have the best education or you are keen to pay off your mortgage early. Or, maybe you just want to put your feet up and retire early. We will help you pinpoint the most important things that could make your life better now, and in the future.

DEVELOP YOUR FINANCIAL STRATEGIES

We'll advise you on your appropriate methods, investment opportunities, debt reduction and wealth creation strategies, and can assist in developing contingency plans for unforeseen occurrences.

ACTION YOUR PLAN

We'll then implement your strategies using appropriate products and services for your needs, and, if needed, put you in touch with a range of specialists.

ASSESS, REVIEW, AND REVISE

Along the way, if you opt to, we can evaluate and adjust your strategies to make sure they're aligned with your expectations and continue to move you closer toward your goals.

THE WAY WE WORK

Remember to be totally open and honest when discussing your situation with your ANZ Financial Adviser. If you provide information that's inaccurate or incomplete we may not be able to give you advice, or the advice might not be appropriate for you.

1. We'll set up an initial meeting

This is a chance for you and your ANZ Financial Adviser to meet and get to know each other and for us to find out what's important to you. We'll discuss your goals, your cares, your worries, and your fears and agree which advice services best suit you.

2. Then, we'll gather your information

Once you understand our service and with your consent, we'll complete a profile of your personal and financial situation, and identify your short and long term goals so we can get a clear picture of where you are now and where you want to be. Where applicable we will also work with you to establish the investment risk you are comfortable with.

3. Next, we both agree on the service

Here's where we discuss what the advice covers, and the services we'll provide. If for any reason we don't believe we can provide the advice you need, we'll suggest another ANZ Financial Adviser who can provide you with the advice or refer you to partners that can help.

4. Then agree on the fees

Once we've agreed on what our advice covers we'll talk about all the costs involved, and everything else you need to know about how we're paid.

5. And put everything in writing for you

You will then receive your advice in writing.

Other ways we may advise you

We may also provide you with advice which is of a general nature. For example, ANZ Financial Advisers may hold seminars on retirement planning strategies. These seminars are typically general in nature and do not consider the personal circumstances of the attendees.

DOCUMENTS YOU MAY RECEIVE

In these circumstances a Record of Advice may be provided to you. You can ask your ANZ Financial Adviser for a copy of a Record of Advice, within 7 years of being given the advice, if you have not already received a copy.

Fee Disclosure Statement

Where you have previously entered into an ongoing fee arrangement to receive ongoing financial services by ANZ Private Banking & Advice, you will receive an annual written statement outlining the services you were entitled to receive, the services you received and the fees you have paid for those services for the previous 12 months under your ongoing fee arrangement.

Your ANZ Financial Adviser acts on behalf of ANZ Private Banking & Advice when providing services to you. Where your ANZ Financial Adviser is not accredited to provide advice for a specific service or product that you require or that is appropriate to your circumstances, they may decline to provide you advice or refer you to another ANZ Financial Adviser who can provide you with the advice.

Please refer to your advice document where specific information relating to the points above are disclosed.

ANZ has entered into separate strategic alliance agreements with Zurich Financial Services Australia Limited (Zurich) and IOOF Holdings Limited and Australian Wealth Management Limited (IOOF Group). Under these agreements, Zurich and IOOF Group will design, make available and issue specified ANZ-branded financial products to ANZ customers in Australia, and ANZ will make the products available through ANZ's network. In Zurich's case, the ANZ-branded products will be mortgage protection insurance (a consumer credit insurance product) and life insurance products while, in IOOF Group's case, they will be superannuation and investment products.

Zurich will pay ANZ: commissions on the mortgage protection insurance product of up to 20% of premiums plus an administration fee (payable per policy at inception); commissions on life insurance products, in accordance with the prescribed caps and claw-back requirements; grandfathered trail commissions on certain individual and group life products; and commissions on group life cover taken out by employers for employees (following a referral by ANZ to Zurich) at an agreed rate.

IOOF Group will pay ANZ: an annual fixed amount as contribution to ANZ's forecast marketing costs in relation to IOOF Group superannuation products distributed by ANZ.

EXTERNAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

ANZ may from time to time engage a third party to provide financial services on its behalf. Where that third party does not hold its own AFSL, it will provide the financial services as ANZ's 'authorised representative'. Authorised representatives can be either individuals or bodies corporate. ANZ may authorise a company or an individual to act as ANZ's authorised representative for sales and marketing activities. For example, ANZ may authorise an external call centre and its staff to sell ANZ products or authorise external contractors to work in ANZ branches or call centres on a temporary basis. ANZ is responsible for the conduct of these authorised representatives when they act on behalf of ANZ.

REMUNERATION OR OTHER BENEFITS RECEIVED BY ANZ FINANCIAL ADVISERS

ANZ Financial Advisers are paid a salary and may receive additional benefits. These additional benefits may be paid based on an assessment of your ANZ Financial Advisers alignment to ANZ Values (such as integrity, collaboration, accountability, respect and excellence) and their achievements in relation to business objectives during the year. The business objectives cover areas including customer satisfaction, delivering on customer promises and adherence to advice processes. Financial contribution (or revenue generated) is not part of the Financial Advisers assessment.

Due to the fact that this assessment is subjective it is not possible to accurately estimate the actual additional benefits that may be received by your ANZ Financial Adviser. Benefits can be either monetary or non-monetary. Non-monetary benefits can include shares, options, hospitality and awards, and planner conferences.

ANZ Private Banking & Advice maintains a register of all non-monetary benefits received by ANZ Financial Advisers. You may request particulars of any monetary, or non-monetary, benefits payable to your ANZ Financial Adviser.

If you receive personal financial product advice, more detailed information about fees, commissions or other benefits payable to ANZ Private Banking & Advice or your ANZ Financial Adviser will be contained in or with either your Statement of Advice or Product Disclosure Statement.

If any fees, commissions or other benefits payable to ANZ Private Banking & Advice or your ANZ Financial Adviser affect the return payable to you under a product, further details will also be contained in the Product Disclosure Statement for the relevant product and your Statement of Advice.
