ANZ appoints Alan Roch Head of Debt Syndicate, Asia Pacific

ANZ today announced the appointment of Alan Roch in the expanded role of Head of Debt Syndicate, Asia Pacific reporting to Global Head of Debt Syndicate Paul White.

Mr Roch joins from RBS in Singapore, where he was Managing Director and Head of Asia Pacific Bond Syndicate since 2011.

During a 16 year career in banking, Mr Roch was previously Director Emerging Markets Debt Syndicate at ABN AMRO in London which he joined in 2000, having commenced his career at BNP Finance in Paris.

Commenting on his appointment Mr White said: "Alan has extensive debt syndicate experience across the Asia Pacific and in global markets. He is well qualified to support the further development of ANZ's debt capital markets capabilities in the region."

Mr Roch is expected to join ANZ in August 2015 and will be based in Hong Kong.
