ANZ appoints Jennifer Kusuma as Senior Asia Rates Strategist

ANZ today announced the appointment of Jennifer Kusuma as Senior Asia Rates Strategist, reporting to Khoon Goh, ANZ's Head of Asia Research.

Ms Kusuma joins from BNP Paribas where she was FX and Interest Rates Strategist, focusing on currency and fixed income on Southeast Asian markets. Prior to that, she was Asian Rates Strategist at Standard Chartered Bank, covering Asia ex-Japan.

At ANZ, Ms Kusuma will provide analysis and insights on fixed income markets within key Asian markets as well as formulating strategies and executable trade ideas, with a particular focus on Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand.

Commenting on the appointment, Mr Goh said: "Jennifer is well known among fixed income investors, having been highly commended in the Asian Local Currency Bond Benchmark Review of sell-side research analysts for the past two years.

"We are pleased that our clients will be able to benefit from her extensive experience and deep knowledge of the Southeast Asian fixed income market," Mr Goh added.

Ms Kusuma will commence on 21 February 2017 and will be based in Singapore.
