ANZ named Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia for relationships, nine years in a row

ANZ today announced its Institutional business has been awarded Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia for the ninth consecutive year. The award recognises relationship quality and was revealed in the Coalition Greenwich Voice of Client – 2025 Asia Corporate Banking Study results.

ANZ was also named Best Bank Corporate Banking in China – also for the ninth straight year – and Hong Kong, reflecting its long history supporting the trade and capital flows of Institutional customers across the region.

ANZ Managing Director, International, Simon Ireland said: “This year’s Coalition Greenwich awards recognise quality service, ease of doing business, and expertise across markets, and it’s rewarding to see our customers acknowledge our focus in these areas. The results also reinforce our ongoing commitment to putting customers first.

“It’s clear ANZ’s international network remains a competitive advantage, connecting our customers to opportunities across Asia, Australia, New Zealand and beyond. We’ll continue to invest in our people and platforms to strengthen our capabilities and deliver value for our customers,” Mr Ireland said.

ANZ received the following Coalition Greenwich Awards in 2026:

- Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia (9th year)
- Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia, China (9th year)
- Best Bank – Corporate Banking in Asia, Hong Kong
- Best Bank – Coverage for Corporates in Asia
- Best Bank – Ease of Doing Business for Corporates in Asia
- Best Bank – Foreign Exchange Trading for Corporates in Asia

The Coalition Greenwich Voice of Client – 2025 Asia Corporate Banking Study asks executives to rate their banks using a range of qualities.

The annual independent study interviewed 1,052 corporates with annual revenues of $US500 million or more across Asia. Read the 2026 Coalition Greenwich report for more information.
