DISTRIBUTION CONDITIONS

ANZ applies the following conditions and restrictions to the distribution of ANZ Access Advantage so that the product is likely to be provided to customers in the target market.

These conditions and restrictions:

- limit the channels through which the product can be provided;
- ensure those who distribute the product are adequately trained and accredited; and
- ensure ANZ only distributes the product in accordance with a consistent application and assessment process.

	Condition	How does this make the distribution appropriate?
Channel	ANZ Access Advantage can only be provided to customers through the following channels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ANZ Branches;</li> <li>• ANZ Private;</li> <li>• ANZ Customer Contact Centre; and</li> <li>• Online channels (this may include anz.com, ANZ App and ANZ Internet Banking).</li> </ul>	By limiting channels, ANZ can ensure that applications for ANZ Access Advantage are only received through channels that are subject to appropriate conditions, controls and/or monitoring.
Training &amp; Accreditation	ANZ Access Advantage can only be provided to customers by ANZ directly, or through authorised ANZ staff who are accredited and trained.	By applying training and accreditation standards to ANZ staff who distribute the product, ANZ is ensuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• background checks are conducted on relevant individuals;</li> <li>• those distributing the product hold appropriate qualifications, are authorised to engage in distribution activities and are appropriately trained and accredited to ANZ standards; and</li> <li>• those distributing the product understand the distribution process ANZ requires them to follow, as well as the legislative framework relevant to their activities.</li> </ul>
Process	ANZ Access Advantage can only be provided to customers by following ANZ's customer application and product selection process, including making relevant enquiries into the customer's product needs.	By applying its application and product selection process, ANZ can make enquiries to determine whether the product is consistent with the likely needs, objectives and financial situation of the customer.

REVIEW OF THE TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION (TMD)

ANZ will review the TMD periodically to ensure it remains appropriate.

Periodic Reviews of the TMD	Timing
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Initial review</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No later than 18 months from the date the TMD is made.</li></ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Subsequent ongoing review</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>No later than 18 months from the date of the previous review.</li></ul>

Review Triggers

In addition, ANZ will review this document earlier if one or more of the following occurs, where they reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate:

- There is a material change to the product or its distribution. For example, a change to a key product attribute or a material change to the distribution channel.
- There is a change in law or its application, a change in relevant industry code, an AFCA determination, a court decision, or ASIC or other regulatory guidance or action that materially affects the product. For example, if a change in the law requires ANZ to change or remove a key product attribute or a product intervention order is made by ASIC in respect of the product.
- There is a significant increase beyond expected levels in complaints or disputes, or a significant change in the nature of complaints or disputes relating to the product.
- ANZ has information about the way in which the product is being distributed, operating or being used by customers that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate. For example, ANZ will monitor:
  - number of accounts that customers opt to close shortly after the product is issued;
  - number of accounts that appear inactive shortly after the product is issued; and
  - unexpected changes in sales trends.
- Any other event occurs or information is received (for example, significant dealings in the product that are not consistent with the TMD) that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.

REPORTING

Regulated persons must provide the following information to ANZ:

Category	Description	Reporting period	Reporting timeframe
Complaints	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Whether any complaints relating to the product were received during the reporting period; and</li><li>• If so:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- the number of complaints received during the reporting period; and</li><li>- the substance of those complaints and any general feedback relating to the product or its performance.</li></ul></li></ul>	Every calendar quarter.
