REVIEW THE TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION (TMD)

ANZ will review the TMD periodically to ensure it remains appropriate.

Periodic Reviews of the TMD	Timing
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Initial review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">No later than 18 months from the date the TMD is made.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Subsequent ongoing review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">No later than 18 months from the date of the previous review.

Review Triggers

In addition, ANZ will review this document earlier if one or more of the following occurs, where they reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate:

- There is a material change to the product or its distribution.
- There is a change in law or its application, a change in relevant industry code, an AFCA determination, a court decision, or ASIC or other regulatory guidance (including APRA requirements) that materially affects the product.
- There is a significant increase beyond expected levels in complaints or disputes, or a significant change in the nature of complaints or disputes relating to either the product or a third party intermediary (including its authorised third parties) so far as it relates to the product.
- ANZ has information about either:
 - the way in which the product is being distributed, operating or being used by customers that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate; or
 - the way in which a third party intermediary (including its authorised third parties) is operating, so far as it relates to the product, that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.
- Any other event occurs or information is received (for example, significant dealings in the product that are not consistent with the TMD) that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.
