ANZ BUSINESS EXTRA

TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION

PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT

This target market determination is made by ANZ under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). Its purpose is to describe who this product has been designed for, conditions under which the product must be distributed and how this document will be monitored for ongoing appropriateness.

TARGET MARKET

ANZ Business Extra has been designed for customers who:	Key attributes of ANZ Business Extra that make the product appropriate for the target market:
Are running a business (whether or not for profit);	 Eligibility: ANZ Business Extra is only available for business purposes. Compatibility: Allows customers to integrate account data with eligible accounting software.
Require access to their funds on demand;	 Transactional ability: Allows customers to access funds and make and receive payments through multiple payment methods on demand.
Want the ability to make and receive payments frequently through one or more of the payment methods offered by ANZ; and	Payment methods: Payments can be made through a range of methods, including digitally.
Want access to ANZ Internet Banking for Business.	 IB4B: Access to ANZ Internet Banking for Business is included with no additional fee. Fees: Fixed monthly account servicing fee. Fees may apply if a transaction is initiated from an account containing insufficient funds and for certain transaction types.

DISTRIBUTION CONDITIONS

ANZ applies the following conditions and restrictions to the distribution of ANZ Business Extra so that the product is likely to be provided to customers in the target market.

	Condition	Why do we do this?
Channel	 ANZ Business Extra can only be provided to customers through the following channels: ANZ Commercial; ANZ National Business Centre; ANZ Digital¹; ANZ Branches; and ANZ Private. ANZ Business Extra cannot be distributed by third parties. Brokers may refer customers to ANZ, however only authorised ANZ staff may decide to issue the product to a customer. 1 This may include anz.com, ANZ App and ANZ Internet Banking. 	So that ANZ only considers providing ANZ Business Extra if the customer's application is received through channels that are subject to appropriate conditions, controls and/or monitoring by ANZ.
Training & Accreditation	ANZ Business Extra can only be provided to customers by ANZ directly or through the following persons: • Authorised ANZ staff who are accredited and trained.	 So that: checks are conducted on matters like qualifications and past conduct for ANZ staff involved in the distribution of ANZ products; and ANZ staff responsible for providing products understand the distribution process they are required to comply with when distributing ANZ products, as well as the legislative framework relevant to their activities.
Process	ANZ Business Extra can only be provided to customers by following ANZ's customer application and product selection process, including making relevant enquiries into the customer's product needs.	So that enquiries are made to determine whether the product meets the likely needs, financial situation and objectives of the customer.

REVIEW THE TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION (TMD)

ANZ will review the TMD periodically to ensure it remains appropriate.

Periodic Reviews of the TMD	Timing
 Initial review 	• No later than 18 months from the date the TMD is made.
Subsequent ongoing review	No later than 18 months from the date of the previous review.

Review Triggers

In addition, ANZ will review this document earlier if one or more of the following occurs, where they reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate:

- There is a material change to the product or its distribution.
- There is a change in law or its application, a change in relevant industry code, an AFCA determination, a court decision, or ASIC or other regulatory guidance that materially affects the product.
- There is a significant increase beyond expected levels in complaints or disputes, or a significant change in the nature of complaints or disputes relating to the product.
- ANZ has information about the way in which the product is being distributed, operating or being used by customers that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.
- Any other event occurs or information is received (for example, significant dealings in the product that are not consistent with the TMD) that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.

REPORTING

Regulated persons must provide the following information to ANZ:

Category	Description	Reporting period	Reporting timeframe
Complaints	 Whether any complaints relating to the product were received during the reporting period; and If so: the number of complaints received during the reporting period; and the substance of those complaints and any general feedback relating to the product or its performance 	Every calendar quarter.	As soon as practicable and in any case within 10 business days of the relevant reporting period.
